If the "ad" interests you, take a look at the article, itself. Real values, when advertised, attract buyers quickly—so do not wait too long.

Store Ads. Are Interesting

It takes very interesting advertising to compete for public attention with the stirring news of world events nowadays. But you must realize that the processes of daily life are still important to you—that your BUYING is a bigger problem than in ordinary times, and requires more study and attention than ever before. Read the ads.

The store in which you find yourself most interested is a little world in itself—a distribution center to which come the products of labor and skill from every part of the continent. Read the ads.

SAILING HUMBOLDT IS CANCELED BY OPERATING FIRM

SEATTLE, Oct. 28.—The sailing of the steamer Humboldt has been cancelled. Manager Kalish said this was because of the order of Gov. Thomas R. Riggs, which prohibited the discharge of sick passengers or the members of the crew or those in contact with influenza.

Skagway and Whitehorse sent out a notice Saturday that all passengers arriving at Skagway from the outside will be held in quarantine five days.

The Empire already has explained that the Governor does not prohibit influenza cases from landing at points of destination in Alaska, but does insist that they shall be isolated and placed in charge of medical officers ashore until all danger of contagion is over.

IS APPOINTED MAJOR.

Word has been received by Rev. James Condit that J. J. Crossley, former United States district attorney, for the Fourth Division, with the fighting forces has been promoted to major. He was in the battle of the Champagne with the American forces.

ALL THAT CERTAIN PLACER MINING CLAIM known as the KEYSTONE NO. 2 PLACER MINING CLAIM, fully bounded and described in that certain United States patent to the Lemon Creek Company bearing date January 31, 1905, recorded in Book 21 of deeds on page 616 of Juneau, Recording Precinct, at Juneau, Alaska.

ALL THAT CERTAIN PLACER MINING CLAIM known as the ALPHA PLACER MINING CLAIM, fully bounded and described in United States Patent to the Lemon Creek Company, bearing date June 10, 1905, and recorded in Book 20 of deeds, Page 569 of Juneau Recording Precinct, at Juneau, Alaska.

ALL THE BUILDINGS AND IMPROVEMENTS HERE TO FORE created upon the above described premises or elsewhere, formerly owned by said Lemon Creek Co., and all the personal property heretofore owned by the said Lemon Creek Company located on the above described premises including mining tools, machinery, saw mill outfit, blacksmith outfit, office furniture and fixtures and household goods, pipe and piping and all lumber upon said premises being the same property, both real and personal, and premises, which the LEMON CREEK COMPANY, by deed of September 10, 1904, duly recorded in the office of the Recorder at Juneau, Alaska, on May 5, 1906, Book 21, of deeds, on page 325, granted and conveyed to FRANK C. OSBURN, plaintiff, and mortgagee herein, and which the latter by deed of even date herewith granted and conveyed to ALFRED GFELLER, one of the defendants and mortgagee herein.

That default has been caused in the terms of said mortgage by reason of the non-payment of the said note or bond herein referred to for which said mortgage was given to secure, all of which was long past due at the time of the commencement of this action; and there remains due to said plaintiff under and by virtue of said note and bond and mortgage the sum of seventy-five thousand ($75,000.00) dollars with interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum payable semi-annually from August 27, 1912, and cost of suit and an attorney fee of five per cent (5%) of the amount found due under and by virtue of said note, bond and mortgage above referred to.

That the premises conveyed and covered by said mortgage may be sold and the proceeds thereof applied to the payment of the above mentioned indebtedness, expense, cost and attorney fees, and also that said defendant, Alfred Gfeller and Elizabeth Gfeller, his wife, and all of the other defendants mentioned herein and all persons claiming by, through or under said defendants, or either of them, may be barred and foreclosed of all right, title, claim, lien, equity of redemption and interest in and to the mortgaged premises and for other and further relief.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of the above entitled Court this 11th day of October, A. D. 1918. (Seal) J. W. BELL, Clerk.

JNO. R. WINN,
Attorney for Plaintiff, Juneau, Alaska.
Date of first publication, October 14th, A. D. 1918.
Date of last publication, November 18, 1901, and recorded in Book 18, of deeds, on page 411 to 416, of the Records of Juneau Precinct, at Juneau, Alaska.

JOHN F. PUGH ONLY JUNEAU VICTIM ABOARD

He Was Born in Jefferson County, Wash.; Spent Boyhood in Port Townsend.

LEAVES MANY FRIENDS

He Had Been a Resident of Alaska Since He Left College; His First Appointment.

John Fraser Pugh, the only Juneauite among the victims of the Princess Sophia disaster, was one of the most prominent citizens of Alaska. He has been Collector of Customs of the District of Alaska since February 1, 1914, when he succeeded Collector John R. Willis, now Vice President of the B. M. Behrens' Bank. He was appointed to the office by President Woodrow Wilson in December, 1913 and again earlier in the present year he was appointed by President Wilson for another four-year term. He has been a resident of Alaska since shortly after he left college, and in the United States Customs service for 16 years, receiving his first appointment from Capt. D. H. Jarvis when the latter was Collector of Customs.

Mr. Pugh was appointed to the customs service in June, 1902, and stationed at Ketchikan. He was promoted and transferred to Skagway in 1905. In May 1908 he was placed in charge of the sub-port at Sulzer, and in April 1909 he was transferred to customs headquarters at Juneau, and placed in charge of the navigation and statistical desk. February 1, 1914, he became Collector of Customs, head of the customs service in Alaska.

Mr. Pugh was 41 years if age. He was born in Jefferson County, Washington, and spent his early boyhood days in Port Townsend. His friends are all who know him and they are everywhere in Alaska.

Mr. Pugh is survived by a widow and daughter, Miss Venetia Pugh, a Juneau High School student, his mother, Mrs. Cassie G. Pugh, and sister, Mrs. Robert W. Jennings, wife of the United States District Judge. The loss of Mr. Pugh has made the Princess Sophia disaster especially personal to hundreds of citizens of this city.

ALL CLOCKS ARE TURNED BACK HOUR FOR SUNDAY MORN

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—At two o'clock Sunday morning the clocks of the nation were turned back an hour. All trains remained motionless for an hour.

The naval observatory clocks here were stopped an hour here to let the sun catch up.

NO WORD RECEIVED OF THE NORTHWESTERN

While no word has been received of the Northwestern, which was thought to be due last Saturday, the impression now prevails that she is on the way, having been delayed in leaving Cordova, or else took the outside passage because of storm conditions. In a telegram dated Oct. 24-25, Supt. Morrison, of the Alaska Road Commission, wired the office here from Cordova that the Northwestern was expected there in two days' time. No direct word has been received since that message.

CORPORAL LE ROY VESTAL HAS BEEN WOUNDED IN ACTION AT FRONT

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Day, in a letter, that their son, LeRoy Vestal, with the American fighting forces in France, has been wounded. His condition is not serious. Corporal Vestal, in writing to his mother under date of September 29, says: "I have been wounded, but not bad. Tell all the people hello for me."
